DETAILED ACTION

This application claims priority to provisional application 60/253,874 filed 29 November 2000.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to many different compositions comprising patentable distinct species of the following broad genera:

- (1) polar solvents
- (2) a lipid or a surfactant
- (3) an essential oil and/or
- (4) a dissolution/solubilization agent and optionally,
- (5) pharmaceutical active which is not easily soluble in water

In order to demonstrate the many different species encompasses by each of the genera listed in (1)-(5), consider the following. Polar solvent includes water (a non-organic molecule) as well as any number of organic solvents such as alcohols, classified in class 514, subclasses 724+, for example. Lipids include cholesterol type species classified in class 514, subclass 169, 171 as well as fatty acids, classified in class 514, subclasses 558, 559, 560 for example, and surfactants include amphoteric, anionic, cationic and non-ionic surfactants, each of which have many different members with varying structures. Essential oils, depending on the source from which they are derived can be classified in any subclass of class 514, as well as class 424, subclasses 58 and 195.1. Dissolution and solubilization agents are classified in the following classes of class 514: 117 (sulfonamides), 159 (salicylic acid), 553+ (carboxylic acids), 52, 251,276 (Vitamin Bs), 167, 168 (Vitamin D), 458 (tocopherol), 474 (ascorbic acid), 725 (vitamin A), 311+ (quinolines), Note that pharmaceutical actives, depending on their structure, can be classified throughout class 514, in many, if not all, of its subclasses. Note further that the instant claims encompass not only the many different species of each of the genera listed in (1)-(5) herein above, but also the many different possibilities and permutations thereof. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, i.e., one single member of each of the genera listed above for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. By species is meant a single compound. The elected compound specie of each group may be named in any of four ways (or any combination thereof): (a) according to the IUPAC standard, (b) by a pictorial representation of the compound, (c) by setting forth the specific chemical group that each variable of the Markush group represents, or (d) by naming a claim or an example which itself sets forth a single compound. Currently, claims 1-56 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
